

WINDOWS AND MIRRORS

REFLECTIONS ON THE WAR IN AFGHANISTAN

HOSTED BY MEDFORD LEAS, MEDFORD, NJ
SATURDAY & SUNDAY, MARCH 10 -11, 2012

Medford Leas is pleased to present the provocative traveling art exhibit Window & Mirrors: Reflections on the War in Afghanistan. Featuring 25 large-scale murals by American and international artists, the exhibit was created by The American Friends Service Committee (AFSC) in collaboration with The Philadelphia Mural Arts program and the Chicago Public Art Group. The exhibit is an invitation to reflect upon the impact of this war on a civilian population caught in the crossfire. It memorializes the Afghan civilian casualties and focuses on the human cost of the war. These gifted artists give us "windows" on a war-torn country and "mirrors" reflecting our own identity as a nation at war.

A highlight of this two-day exhibit is a special address by Shan Cretin, General Secretary, AFSC, on Saturday, March 10.
